The attention of every policy holder is called to the following:

By vote at the annual meeting of the Company held January 7, 1941, policy holders wishing to remain away longer than thirty days may keep the insurance on their property good, by applying to the secretary for a permit to leave premises unoccupied for such times as they may specify paying for the same five cents per month for every one hundred dollars for which they are insured.

The cash premium for permits has been reduced from five to three cents per month.

REPORT OF SANBORNTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

The books and magazines furnished to the patrons of the Sanbornton Public Library during the fiscal year just ended amounted to approximately 3,279 divided as follows: Adult fiction 1520; adult non-fiction 179; juvenile 1351; magazines 229.

New adult and juvenile books were brought to the library, schools and branch libraries through bookmobile service.

Donations of books and magazines, by generous friends were greatly appreciated.

Adult and juvenile books purchased with funds amounted to 60.

Thirty-eight books were given, by Sanbornton people, for the Victory Book campaign and shipped to the sorting center in Concord by the librarian.

Runnels History of Sanbornton, tells of the early books printed in town. Through the generosity of our many friends the library has acquired a number of these books, published by D. V. Moulten, dated 1828, and others by Charles Lane, dated 1838. Other gifts include a catalogue of the Sanborn Woodman Academy and a portrait painted by the later Walter Ingalls of Sanbornton. Not forgetting the early town reports, almanacs and many other gifts which people have so willingly donated for the benefit of all.

Respectfully submitted,

GERTRUDE CURRIER,
Librarian

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

The shortage of teachers in New Hampshire, and indeed throughout the country, has become a serious situation. The war is taking the men teachers and many of the women. Industry with its war contracts and high wages is a strong magnet that is drawing from the teaching profession, as it is from farm labor and other civic occupations. The prospect of getting teachers for the next school year and in fact for the duration, seems no brighter than it did last summer, in fact worse. It is the smaller schools, situated in villages and rural communities that will suffer most as they cannot pay what the teachers can now command and because the teachers much prefer to teach one or perhaps two grades, than several as is found in smaller community schools.

We have been fortunate this year in finding four teachers for our schools. Mr. Janosz, the principal of the "Square School" last year, was called into the service. Miss Piecuch accepted a better position and Mrs. Blake, a long time teacher in the Gaza school was unable to resume her duties thus leaving three vacant positions to fill. We were fortunate in securing Mr. Albert Merrill of Plymouth Teachers' College, and Miss Hildegard Wittig of Tilton—Plymouth 1942—for the Square School, who are proving themselves capable teachers. The position at Gaza we were not able to fill until a few days before time for opening the school. Mrs. Elizabeth MacIver was secured. She is a teacher of long experience and is doing a very satisfactory job.

It is especially unfortunate, that at a time when the government is strongly advocating more special training that what little we had we were obliged to abandon.

The shortage of farm labor is decidedly critical. The need of help for the farms will be emphasized this year from many high schools and colleges. In our schools this need should also be stressed that our older boys may be content to remain on the home farm.

Mrs. Gilchrist's music teaching is plainly showing good results. The graduating exercises last June were a sample of her teaching and doubtless many were as surprised as I at the evidence of splendid musical ability among the pupils in Sanbornton.

I wish to thank the teachers and those of the citizens who so kindly helped in the several rationing programs. It truly was a patriotic service.

With the government program of health teaching and health preservation, we should congratulate ourselves that we have so excellent a school nurse to guard the health of our children and to see to it that they are surrounded with healthy conditions.

I wish to acknowledge the splendid cooperation of teachers and School Board in all we are trying to do in Sanbornton schools.

Respectfully submitted,

FRED S. LIBBEY,
Superintendent of Schools.
